

ART IN A TEACUP

Indian-American JACQUELINE CAMBATA designs fine porcelain tableware, manufactured in Limoges, France. Precious imagery and motifs from 16th-century Indian MUGHAL art comes alive in vivid hues and gold accents.

CHECK OUT Their four collections, The Shangri-La, Elephant Shanti, Golden Lotus and Nirvana – all combining spellbinding detail with rich colour as gazelles, elephants and flowers grace the plates. www.cambatadesigns.com

THE SAYL CHAIR
"People want to go beyond expectations. They want that same unframed spirit in the objects they use and how they experience them," says Yves Béhar, designer of the new Herman Miller SAYL chair line. We love the full-suspension back, which is frameless. For those with sore backs, the chair's 3-D intelligence lets it adapt to a person's shape and movements. Available at Workrite, 201/203, A-Wing, Prathamesh Tower, Raghuvanshi Mills Compound, Lower Parel, Mumbai 13. Inquiries, (022) 24970208
